Shaping the Future of AI Policy & Economics – Highlights from the Ai4 Policy Summit 🍷

On 11th August, RegulatingAI proudly partnered with Ai4 to bring together leading minds for a deep dive into how AI policy is influencing the global economic landscape and redefining the way we think about decision-making, trust, and liability in the age of Agentic AI.

- ◆ Session 1: Economic Implications of AI Policy: Innovation, Competition, and Market Access
- ◆ Panel Session: Agentic AI – Redefining Decision-Making, Trust, and Liability

A forward-looking conversation on:

🌟 Together, we're not just reacting to the AI revolution — we're helping design the rules of the game.

🔊 Day 2 Highlights – RegulatingAI x Ai4 Policy Summit 🌍💡

On 12th August, RegulatingAI continued its partnership with Ai4 to host a powerful series of conversations on how AI policy can be shaped to serve innovation, equity, and preparedness for the global workforce.

💡 Session 1: Democratizing AI Talent – Bridging Policy, Innovation, and Equity
This discussion explored how policy frameworks can ensure that access to AI education and skills development isn't concentrated in a few regions or industries.

🏠 Session 2: Navigating AI-Driven Job Displacement – Designing Universal Transition Frameworks
AI will create new opportunities, but it will also reshape industries and displace certain job categories.

🏛️ Session 3: AI Policy in the Trump Administration – Lessons Learned and the Road Ahead
A candid look at the past and future of U.S. AI policy.
